

Assalam-o-Alaikum!

Today's video is about a great personality, a true lion among men, Dr. Zeeshan-ul-Hasan Usmani¹¹¹. Born in Sugar, this individual's life journey is nothing short of incredible, astonishing, and truly engaging². Just as the sun illuminates everything around us, Dr. Zeeshan-ul-Hasan Usmani has brought light to the world³.

Born on the 29th of September, 1978, in Sugar, into a humble household, Dr. Usmani's father was a simple man⁴. Facing extreme poverty, he tirelessly worked to dispel the darkness of hardship and ignite the lamp of success through sheer hard work⁵.

His educational journey is remarkable, starting from Modern Hi-School, then College, Latif University, Western University, and finally, a Ph.D. from Florida University⁶. From childhood, he was destined for greatness, and today, the world recognizes him as a distinguished Data Scientist⁷. During his academic career, he earned approximately six master's degrees from various institutions and achieved a doctorate in Computer Science⁸.

Dr. Usmani's triumph over poverty is a testament to his incredible work ethic⁹. He couldn't afford formal university training, yet his dedication was such that he started a small photocopy shop and ordered books from outside¹⁰. He is a self-taught genius¹¹. It's said that he could memorize an entire book by reading it just once¹². During his school days, he verbally memorized 6,000 idioms¹³. He also secured top positions in every debate competition through his sheer intellect¹⁴.

Dr. Zeeshan Usmani often says that everyone has a unique skill within them that needs to be nurtured¹⁵. For him, that skill was reading, and he mastered it¹⁶. His personal library boasts over 26,000 books, all of which he has read¹⁷. Not only does he read extensively, but he is also an accomplished writer, with numerous books in Urdu and English to his credit¹⁸. He has authored more than 40 books on self-development¹⁹.

His areas of interest include Computer Science, Wireless and IT Communication, Social Intelligence, Facebook Research, Security, and Cannabis²⁰. Dr. Zeeshan Usmani holds over 170 certifications²¹. Currently, he works as a Data Scientist in America for "Butter of Data Scientist Our Freeze Ranjan" (This part seems like a translation error, it might be a company name or a product name, but I'm keeping it as is based on the source)²². He has worked as a Data Scientist in approximately 21 countries and has traveled to over 123 countries²³. He also holds residency in multiple countries²⁴.

Millions follow him on social media platforms like YouTube and Facebook²⁵. He refers to himself as a "Digital Laborer"²⁶. Dr. Zeeshan Usmani is a source of immense pride for our nation²⁷. He is passionate about training, which is why he emphasizes the importance of training to Pakistan's future generations²⁸. Through various social media platforms, he encourages young people and has started a series where he teaches them case studies, manners, and how to approach elders²⁹. He also hosts feasts for them³⁰.

Beyond being a Data Scientist, Dr. Zeeshan Usmani is also a motivational speaker³¹. Through his videos, he explains the current situation and demonstrates how one can succeed abroad even with training received at home³².

May Allah always keep such individuals safe in Pakistan³³. If you haven't subscribed to the channel yet, please do so³⁴. Thank you, and we'll see you in the next beautiful video³⁵. Until then, Allah Hafiz³⁶.
